

Maureen Bio:

Maureen has been an active member of Prince George's musical community as both a teacher and accompanist for over twenty years. She studied in Victoria with Edward Parker for several years, during which she earned her A.R.C.T. (Teacher's & Performer's), L.T.C.L., and Bachelor of Music Degree.

She teaches full-time at Classic Touch Piano Studio, and also accompanies the Bel Canto and Northern Voice Choirs as well as the Cantata Singers. In addition to these choirs, Maureen also works with the Quinson School choir, numerous soloists, performs chamber music, and enjoys some keyboard work with the PGSO. Previous musical experiences include musical theatre productions such as Fiddler on the Roof and My Fair Lady, touring throughout North America and Europe with treble choirs, and performing as a soloist with the PGSO.
